Mrs. Hill Parsons and young son, Jim Bethel Parsons, who have been on a visit to relatives and friends in Reidsville for a week, have returned to the city.

Mrs. Russell Ford, who has been the guest of relatives and in Rockingham for the past month, has returned to her home in New York, with her attractive little daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. McPherson and R. Y. Jr., Mrs. William West and Miss Sophie Busbee will come from Raleigh Friday morning to spend the week-end with Mrs. W. L. Parsons. In the party will also be Mrs. Murray Allen and Mrs. W. N. H. Smith, who will spend the week-end with Mrs. A. G. Corpening.

Mrs. Claude Gore entertained the Young Women's Auxiliary of the Baptist church at a "towel shower," honoring two of its most beloved and valued members, Misses Ruby and Elma McIntosh, brides of the month, at her residence last Saturday evening.

As soon as all were there, pencil and paper were given to each guest; the contest was: for the greatest number of words formed with the letters contained in "DOUBLE WEDDING"—Mrs. Bruce Benton proving the most adept, making eighty-six words in all, for which she received a box of chocolates. Another enjoyable diversion of the evening was "A Sad And Solemn Occasion" and just in the midst of the game, when every one was all laughter, the door bell rang and the laundryman left Misses Ruby and Elma McIntosh's laundry. The young ladies were soon busy "checking up" a perfectly beautiful lot of towels for the brides-to-be. The hostess served delicious new peaches with ice cream and cake.

Mr. W. S. Thomas was hostess to a most delightful Rook party, on Wednesday morning at her home on Randolph st. between the hours of eleven and one o'clock. Profusions of summer flowers were in evidence throughout the house, and spirited games were enjoyed until the scores

Mrs. W. S. Thomas was again hostess at a most delightful entertainment on Wednesday afternoon, when she invited friends who enjoy bridge, and one table of rook. After several progressions the top score in bridge was found to be held by Mrs. J. M. Ledbetter, a deck of playing cards, and to Miss Janie Cole was given the rook prize, a deck of rook cards. Mrs. Thomas served a salad course and accessories.

Mrs. F. W. Bynum issued invitations to a very beautiful reception given in honor of her house-guest—Mrs. Willis Smith, at her home on Randolph street, Wednesday afternoon, between 6:30 and 7:30. Callers were met at the entrance by Mesdames A. G. Corpening and B. T. Payne, who ushered them to the receiving line, when Mrs. Bynum introduced them to the honoree, Mrs. Willis Smith, of Raleigh. Serving in the dining room were Misses Octavia Scales, Berta West and Laura Page Steele. Frozen punch and cakes were served. This was easily one of the most thoroughly delightful entertainments of the season.

Complimenting Misses Ruby and Elma McIntosh, whose double marriage to Messrs. Rufus McNair and Arthur L. Humphrey will take place June 18th, Mrs. K. C. Garner entertained last Thursday evening, at her home on Robinson street. The feature of this delightful party was an interesting and difficult puzzle, which when solved, disclosed the hiding place of a box of beautiful silk lingerie, for the brides elect. The reception hall, library, and living room of this attractive bungalow were thrown en semble for the occasion, and decorated with quantities of flowers and sweet peas. Ice cream with sliced home-made cake, and mints was served. This is the first of the pre-nuptial events planned for these popular brides-to-be, and the manifest enjoyment of the guests, the beauty and originality of the whole affair promise to hold it out as one of the best. Enjoying this delightful hospitality were: besides the HONOREES, Misses Pearl McIntosh, Edith McLeod, Bessie and Sue Taylor, Rosa Davis, Bettie and Anna Barrett, Nettie Poplin.

PERUNA A WONDERFUL MEDICINE

Rundown and Unable to Work

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna as it was beneficial in restoring my health when I was all run down from overwork and nervous worry and was unable to take up my regular work. A friend recommended Peruna and said he was sure that it would restore my strength. I soon found that I was getting better and in a little over two months I was able to resume my duties with renewed vigor and strength. It certainly is a wonderful medicine to vitalize the system."
